

Social Investment Opportunities for the Fledgling Companies.

Regional news media outlet New West Network joined the Entrepreneur's Foundation of Colorado as a way for this start-up company to invest in our communities. The concept is simple: entrepreneurial companies donate shares equal to about one percent of their equity to the Foundation. If the company is successful, those shares will have significant value and the Foundation will thus share in the success. Read more at the NewWest.net Blog.