

State Broadband Mappers Need Your Help

March 16, 2010

This is our chance to help Montana enter the technology fueled future. The Montana Department of Commerce is asking Montanans to take the internet speed test to help map state wide internet service. The State Broadband Mapping Project will map broadband Internet availability across the State and the Nation.